

AudioFile's Best Audiobooks of 2004

AudioFile's editors have chosen 10 titles of 2004 that offer unparalleled audio experiences that might inspire you to try something outside of your normal listening.

Lyrical writing and fascinating historical details make this an enchanting and compelling look at early church politics.

BEYOND BELIEF

Elaine Pagels; Read by Jennifer Van Dyck
Random House Audio
ISBN 0-7393-1067-4 $25.00 Abridged

Always in tune with the action, John Lee gives a masterful, riveting performance of this intricate novel of intrigue.

A DEATH IN VIENNA

Daniel Silva; Read by John Lee
Audible.com
ISBN 0-7366-9742-X $24.47 Unabridged
Also available from Books on Tape

Sedaris's essays are written to be heard, and his keen delivery makes them that much more eminently relatable.

DRESS YOUR FAMILY IN CORDUROY AND DENIM

David Sedaris; Read by David Sedaris
Time Warner AudioBooks
ISBN 1-58621-501-9 $26.98 Unabridged

Virginia Leishman's precise, thoughtful, gentle narration replicates the almost impossible movement from postwar hollowness to hope reborn.

THE GREAT FIRE

Shirley Hazzard; Read by Virginia Leishman
Audible.com
ISBN 1-4025-8125-4 $20.99 Unabridged
Also available from Books on Tape

Patrician and plummy, Edward Herrmann, Jane Alexander, and even the author himself deliver sterling performances of Updike's most well-known stories.

THE JOHN UPDIKE AUDIO COLLECTION

John Updike; Read by John Updike,
Edward Herrmann, Jane Alexander
Harper Audio/Caedmon
ISBN 0-06-057721-5 $29.95 Unabridged

Ernie Hudson's performance turns one man's dilemma into an exploration of perversity, punishment, repentance, and redemption.

THE MAN IN MY BASEMENT

Walter Mosley; Read by Ernie Hudson
Time Warner AudioBooks
ISBN 1-58621-584-1 $25.98 Unabridged

Simon Jones's effortless accents, impeccable timing, and, above all, empathy make this clever parable about greed work for all ages.

MILLIONS

Frank Cottrell Boyce; Read by Simon Jones
Harper Audio
ISBN 0-06-074272-0 $25.95 Unabridged

Len Cariou adds a new dimension to Connelly's hero Harry Bosch in what may be the best mystery you hear this year. Try The Poet and Blood Work first. Then appreciate Cariou's performance here.

THE NARROWS

Michael Connelly; Read by Len Cariou
Time Warner AudioBooks
ISBN 1-58621-636-8 $36.98 Unabridged
Also available from Books on Tape

Thanks to Rebecca Macauley's fresh, utterly convincing narration of this Australian import, the universal story of a young woman finding her way translates in all cultures.

SAVING FRANCESCA

Melina Marchetta; Read by Rebecca Macauley
Bolinda Audio
ISBN 1-74093-002-9 $40.00 Unabridged

Vastly entertaining—Stephen Hoyer enhances the hilarity and charm of the story, especially Hiaasen's eye for offbeat details.

SKINNY DIP

Carl Hiaasen; Read by Stephen Hoyer
Audible.com
ISBN 1-4159-0091-4 $27.97 Unabridged
Also available from Books on Tape

Listen to sound clips of these and more of AudioFile's Best Audiobooks of the Year at www.audiofilemagazine.com.